Here, food is also prepared for the students living in the hostel of the school with the gas prepared from the dung Bio-Gas. Apart from this, cow-wood is also prepared along with manure from the waste material released from the gas plant located at the school premises. Fertilizer and milk in demand

About four tonnes of cow dung is removed daily from both the Gaushala. It is used in both plants. Cow wood is made from cow dung from the hard bio-CNG plant. Along with this, indigenous manure is made from cow dung from the CNG plant and the Bio-Gas plant, the market price of which is around 1000 to 1500 rupees per trolley.

Arrangement of vegetables and fodder

Vegetables and fodder for cows are grown on about one and a half acres of land on the institute campus itself. Apart from this, fodder for cows is grown on four acres of Nandini Gaushala near Kaliasot Dam. The vegetable produced here is also used for the school hostel.
